

a state and of the little consequence that the opinions on the part of the canonizing committee I have mentioned are not at all surprising. But if you intimate your belief the business is about to improve, I think it will become necessary, in order to satisfy every circumstance, to have the requisitions of the law relating to the subject should be strictly attended to.

Be pleased to lay this communication before the Commissioners and ask their attention to the subject. I shall be glad to hear from you as soon as they may find convenient.

Thomas Spicer Esq
Clerk of the Commissioners of Lotteries Baltimore

Remains very respectfully
Yours Obedient
H. Culbreth

Council Chamber
Annapolis July 26 1831.

Sir

The lamented death of the late Governor Martin has caused the delay which has occurred in replying to your letter of the 4th instant arising from that the duties which you were employed by the late Executive to make for presentation in No. 5 of the 2d session of the and completed.

By direction of His Excellency Governor Howard, I have now to request the delivery of the duties in this office at as early a day as may be convenient to you and to inform you that your bill for them, in conformity to your contract with the Executive will be paid upon presentation thereof.

Remains very respectfully
Yours Obedient
H. Culbreth

Wm Thomas Fletcher
Philadelphia

Council Chamber
Annapolis July 26 1831.

Sir

I have to acknowledge the receipt of yours of the 13th of May last to the Governor of this State, together with the three copies therein mentioned in good order and containing the splendid map of the State of New York and Atlas of Maps of the several Counties of the State, and also the three copies of the revised Statutes and Session Laws of the said State of the year 1829 & 1830 as mentioned in your letter. For their highly interesting and valuable evidence of the public spirit and liberality of the State of New York, as well in the works themselves as in the manner of disposing of them, they are eminently entitled to the thanks of the Sister States.

Very respectfully
Yours Obedient
H. Culbreth

A. C. Flagg Esq
Secy of the State of New York
Albany.