

Council Chamber
Annapolis, April 5th 1832

Sir,

In January last, by direction of the Governor & Council I requested you to forward the Semi-Weekly Globe to this office. The Papers were received (not regularly however) until about the middle of last month, since which we have not received a single number. Will you advise me of the cause for discontinuing the paper.

Francis P. Blair Esquire
Editor of the Globe
Washington.

Very respectfully
Yours &c
A. B. Culbreth

Council Chamber
Annapolis, April 13th 1832

Sir, Above you have a draft on the Treasurer for the amount of the Principal & Interest of the Certificate of State of 5 Cent Stock held by you: which becomes redeemable on the 1st day of July next.

Doctor William Sappington
Hogar & Delaplace
Hearford Court

Very respectfully
Yours &c
A. B. Culbreth

A Letter similar to the above sent to William H. Murray Esquire, Trustee of Baltimore
Mary Runny (off of G sent to Jas G Hawkins Esq (Cash Baltimore) Suzannah Peazip (sent to John Gittings Esq (Cash Broker) Baltimore
George W. Thomas, Trustee of Hannah M. Withers, Chestertown
Charles Carroll of Carrollton, Baltimore.
The Visitors and Governors of Washington College, Chestertown
Doct. William B. Selden, of Norfolk, Virginia being all the holders of certificates of Stock issued by the Executive on account of the building and purchase of the same Warehouse.

Council Chamber
Annapolis, April 15 1832

Sir,

Not knowing the residence of the lady for whom the said draft is intended, and the late firm of Merriman & Gittings having been her agent in receiving interest upon her Stock, I have taken the liberty to submit the draft to your care and to ask of you the kindness to send it to her, or advise her of its receipt by you.

John Gittings Esquire
Broker Baltimore

Very respectfully
Yours &c
A. B. Culbreth