Gulliver:

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of yours of the 3rd ultimo, together with a duplicate of one addressed by you to the Commissioner of Loans, respecting the non-payment of the interest due on the 1st ultimo, in London, on the bonds of this state. They have been communicated to the House of Delegates, which body, by the constitution of the state is charged with the cognizance of the subject. Your former letter was also laid before that body.

I have the honor to be gentlemen.
