

asked for by Dr. Myatt, you had better abrogate it entirely, than to discriminate in favor of any. You have no right to discriminate between Ministers, of reputable character, to whatever Church they may be attached, so long as they observe faithfully the rules of the Institution. Do what is strictly impartial, and you will do what is right, and what I shall approve.

I deem it proper to send a copy of this letter to the Rev. Dr. Myatt. It is due to myself, as well as to you, and to him.

(Very Respectfully)
Yours &c
E. Louis Lowe

State Department
Annapolis Oct. 14th 1857

From
Hon. J. M.
Buchanan to the Gov. relative to the apprising

Hon. J. M. Buchanan

My dear Sir,

As it was through your friendly introduction that I had the honor to form the acquaintance of the Rev. Dr. Myatt, and as (according to my recollection) you were present, at the conversation, alluded to by me, in my correspondence with the Board of Directors of the Maryland Penitentiary (Copies of which are herewith transmitted) I take the liberty of asking you to peruse the enclosed papers, and hand them to the Rev. Dr. Myatt, in person, with the assurance of my very great respect.

I am, most sincerely
Yours &c
E. Louis Lowe

Baltimore Oct. 18th 1857.

From
Hon. J. M.
Buchanan
to the Gov.
in regard to the apprising

(My) Dear Sir,

The papers for the Rev. Dr. Myatt came to me on the day before yesterday but I was at the time professionally occupied and had no opportunity to present them in person until yesterday — The Dr. called to see me in the afternoon and from what he said to me I feel very sure that he does not design to give annoyance to the Directors of the Penitentiary — He says that all he asks is that he may be allowed one hour a week for Religious instruction to such Prisoners as may wish it, at his