Prince George's County
April 7th 1853.

To His Excellency E. Louis Lowe
Governor of Maryland.

Sir,

Mr. Truesman Taylor the State's Attorney for Prince George's County informed me this morning that he was too feeble and too much indisposed to attend to the business of the State. Our Court is now in session, and some very important criminal business before us and I deem it due to the public to apprise you of these facts, so that you may be able to appoint additional counsel to represent the State for this County. With great consideration, I have the honor to subscribe myself

Very Respectfully
Peter W. Brain.

Judge of the first Judicial Circuit.

The members of the bar in this County are more or less engaged for the parties accused.

Hon. P. W. Brain,
Sir:

I have just received your letter of the 7th inst, stating that the State's Attorney for Prince George's County is sick, the Counsel at the Bar of the Circuit Court for that County generally engaged for the different prisoners &c, and asking me to appoint counsel for the State, to conduct the various prosecutions. I have accordingly addressed a letter to Fred K. Stone Esq of Charles County, designating him as counsel, and requesting him to proceed immediately to
