Office of Provost Marshal
Baltimore April 18th 1862

To His Excellency
A. W. Bradford

Sir

I am in accordance with verbal instructions having the guns put in order, many of them are without bayonets, would it not be well for the Adj. Genl. of the State to order up say about one hundred odd bayonets which I have understood he had on hand to enable us to make the muskets complete.

As we have knowledge of many guns held by irresponsible parties I would suggest an official order to collect them in. If power is given to me I will have it done punctually and properly

Respectfully

Yours &c

J. L. McPhail

Deputy Pro. Marshal
