

REPORT

OF

ARMS AND ACCOUTREMENTS, 12th BRIGADE.

Copy of a Report from Brigadier General Solomon Dickinson, of Arms of the 12th Brigade of Maryland Militia.

TALBOT COUNTY, December 1st, 1829.

His Excellency Governor Martin.

Si—Agreeably to your orders, covering a resolution of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at its last session, requiring the Brigadier Generals throughout the state, to ascertain the condition of the public arms within their respective commands, &c. I forthwith issued orders, calling on the following Officers of the Talbot Brigade, Maryland Militia, who appear from the statement received from the Clerk of the Council, to have received public arms, &c. from the State, and received the answers annexed to their names.

John Donovan, 2 six pound field pieces, complete, 20 artillery swords. Bond on file for the field pieces, but not for the swords.— Reports the possession of them, but does not state their condition.

Theodore R. Loockerman, 50 rifles, 50 cartouch boxes. Bond on file. Reports that 38 rifles and 38 cartouch boxes are returned to the Armorer, the remainder in the hands of the Company, in good order.

Thomas Burchenal, 60 cartouch boxes. Bond on file.— No return.

Richard Spencer, 36 muskets, 50 rifles, 50 powder horns, 50 pouches. Bond on file. Reports the rifles in good order, in possession of the Company. The muskets, powder horns and pouches, were never received.

Kigenel Goodwin, 68 rifles, 25 cartouch boxes, 25 pouches. Bond on file. No return.
