By order,

L. Gassaway, Clk

By the House of Delegates,
January 28th, 1830.

Read, and so much thereof, with the papers and documents therein referred to, as relates to the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company, referred to the committee on Internal Improvement—and so much thereof, as relates to the communication from the Governor of Georgia, with the accompanying documents, was referred to the select committee already appointed on the subject.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Annapolis, January 28th, 1830

Gentlemen of the Senate, and of the House of Delegates:

—In compliance with the request contained in the enclosed communication from the Hon. Charles Fenton Mercer, President of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company, we have the honor to lay before you a memorial of the said company with accompanying documents.

We also, by request of his Excellency George R. Gilmer Governor of the State of Georgia, lay before you certain Resolutions of the Legislature of that State upon the subject of amendments proposed by the States of Louisiana and Missouri, to the Constitution of the United States, in relation to the election of President and Vice President.

We have the honor to remain,

With the highest consideration,

Your obedient servants,

THOMAS KING CARROLL.
