

shall be published for the general information of the Stockholders.

The Chairman then designated the committee to consist, in addition to the persons referred to in the resolution, of the following individual Stockholders:

John Mason, George C. Washington,
 Robert J. Taylor, Richard S. Coxe, and
 William A. Bradley, Thomas Carbery.

Francis S. Key offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the General Committee of the Stockholders be instructed to lay before the meeting the estimated cost of the works contemplated between the Little Falls Locks and the mouth of the Tiber, and the estimated cost of the property through which such works are intended to pass; and that they also consider and report on the expediency of suspending these works until the completion of the Canal to Cumberland.

And, on the question to agree thereto, it was decided in the negative—ayes 2,078, noes 4314.

And then the meeting adjourned until Saturday next, 10 o'clock.

SATURDAY, JUNE 6, 1829.

The Stockholders met pursuant to adjournment.

Present:

- The United States, by the Hon. Samuel D. Ingham.
- State of Virginia, by James L. Ranson, Esq.
- State of Maryland, by Benjamin L. Gantt, Esq.
- Corporation of Washington, by Joseph Gales, jr. Esq.
- Corporation of Georgetown, by J. Coxe, J. Dunlop, and W. Jewell, Esq'rs.
- Corporation of Alexandria, by J. F. Mason, R. J. Taylor, H. Smith, A. C. Cazenove, and J. Sanford, Esq'rs.

And many individual Stockholders.

The President of the Company submitted, by direction of the President and Directors, the following resolution: Resolved, That the President and Directors of the Company be instructed to lay before the President of the United States a copy of the memorial presented by them to the House of Representatives at their last session of Congress, in relation to the expediency of multiplying and enlarging the facilities for the construction of ships of