

Thomas Roberts.

By reason of his death this claim is yet awaiting the course of prosecution, which it is now undergoing. Judgment is expected to be had against principal and securities at the next May term of Queen-Anne's county court. The debt is considered secure.

Thomas Burchinel.

This balance stands against him as sheriff; but he alleges that the allowances to which he is entitled for non-residents and insolvents, remitted fines, &c. and for fines and forfeitures transferred by execution to the hands of his successor, will if not entirely, nearly balance his account.

Robert C. Lusby.

There is a judgment against Mr. Lusby, as late sheriff of Cecil county, and I have reason to hope the money will be collected by the next April term of said county court.

Thomas H. Hicks.

After an allowance of credits which he intends to claim for insolvent fines, &c. there will perhaps be nothing due from him.

William Robinson.

Judgment will be had against him at the next May term of Queen-Anne's county court, when it is expected the money will be collected.

Those are the several late sheriffs, and it is presumed the balance against each of them will be settled, or nearly so, by their claims for allowances on account of non-resident and insolvent fines and forfeitures, remitted fines, &c. and for fines and forfeitures, transferred by ex. sas. to the hands of their successors. Their attention will be called to an early ad-
