

Derived from interest on loans, and profit on public stock in which the proceeds of the lotteries were invested till wanted for the work,	$14,579 46
And adding the late receipt from the Treasurer of the Western Shore,	17,753 27
	<hr/>
Makes a total of receipts amounting to	$131,547 02
	<hr/>
Shewing a surplus in the hands of the managers of	$ 117 39
	<hr/>

In the hope that the preceding information may prove satisfactory, and with the assurance of my readiness to give any further explanations if required.

I have the honour to be,

Sir, your most ob't serv't,

ROBERT GILMOR,

Prest. of the W. M. L.

E. HARWOOD, Esq.

Tr. of the W. S. of Md.

Baltimore, December 27, 1827.

Sir,—In compliance with the act of December session of 1824, I beg leave to offer the following report of the affairs of the managers of the Washington Monument.

In my last report to you of 28th December last, I stated the balance remaining in our Treasurer's hands to be

$1,453 83

Since then there has been paid to the architect,

Robert Mills, Esq. for services rendered,

$318 50

And the annual rent of the lot,

40 00

---

$358 50

Leaving a balance still unexpended of

---

$1095 33