

themselves, in the shape of a commission, to be charged on each ratably. It would thus be done, in the most appropriate manner, without taking a cent from the Treasury proper—and he is quite sure, without being injuriously felt by either of the Funds.

He asks leave to suggest also, that his Clerk's compensation be put upon a footing with that of a single Clerk in the service of the State's Tobacco Inspection in Baltimore.