

A STATEMENT

Of the amount of money paid into the Western Shore Treasury, by the Clerk of Baltimore City Court, in each of the last five years—the sources thereof, and his Fees and Commission—prepared in obedience to an Order of the House of Delegates of 2d Feb. 1839.

Years.	Sources.	His Fees.	His Commission.	His Payments into the Treasury.
In 1834,	For 664 Ordinary Licenses, 1169 Traders' Licenses, 5 Billiard Table Licenses,	920 25	1,358 08	25,804 01
In 1835,	For 705 Ordinary Licenses, 1455 Traders' Licenses, 5 Billiard Table Licenses,	1,084 50	1,591 47	30,238 33
In 1836,	For 687 Ordinary Licenses, 1398 Traders' Licenses, 9 Billiard Table Licenses,	1,049 25	1,590 00	30,210 41
In 1837,	For 730 Ordinary Licenses, 1440 Traders' Licenses, 4 Billiard Table Licenses,	1,088 00	1,584 12	30,099 58
1838.	For 781 Ordinary Licenses, 1676 Traders' Licenses, 5 Billiard Table Licenses,	1,232 25	1,718 92	32,659 00
		$5,374 25	7,842 59	149,011 33