

1837.
Taxes on original writs,	$1846,80
on petitions filed on appeals from Magistrates
Judgments,	171,95
on Bills in Equity,	294,50
on Judgments,	156,52
on Executions,	115,43
on petitions of applicants under Insolvent law,	418,00
Received from Trustees of Insolvent Estates,	87,17
	$3090,37
1838.
Taxes on original writs,	$1530,45
on petitions filed on appeals from Magistrates
Judgment,	208,05
on Bills in Equity,	374,30
on Judgments,	135,63
on Executions,	116,85
on petitions for division of deceased persons estates,	3,80
on petitions of applicants under Insolvent law,	371,45
Received from Trustees of Insolvents estates,	2912,76
	$5653.29

Which is respectfully submitted,

THO. KELL, Clerk Balt. County Court.

Baltimore, 25th January, 1839.

P. S. It is proper that I add that no part of the said sums were paid by me to the Judges directly, until since the act of 1837, ch. 72, directing the same to be done.

THO. KELLY, Clerk.