

wanting at Annapolis. If this should be the case and there should be a desire for a reprint, it can be done here at but little expense, about 100 dollars for an edition of 400 copies. Having the plate now cut for the map, the only expens would be in printing.

We might add to it the estimate which is now making. This would enhance the cost, but not much, as there would be no additional maps. The matter is respectfully submitted through you to his Excellency the Governor.

Your ob't. servt.

J. J. ABERT.

Jan. 15, 1839.

Hon. C. McLean.