

his claims to a seat in this house, and that they would at all times have ordered subpoenas for any witnesses he might have desired within the order of the 2nd. of February; they therefore recommend the following order:

Whereas Robert Welch of Ben. has failed to avail himself of the benefit of the orders heretofore adopted, in regard to the contested election in the city of Annapolis:

Ordered, That this house be discharged from the further consideration of his case.

WM. W. HANDY, Chairman.
