

3d Inter.—Explain the item of $912 13, in profit and loss account; (ne 6.)

Answer.—The item referred to, $912 13, on the credit side of the profit and loss account, was made up as follows:—(see Journal, pages 1654 & 1655)

1st.—In part by P. S. Kennard's note dated 1st. Jan., 1838, at 2 years—due one-fourth, Jan. 1840,	103 21
P. S. Kennard's note, dated 1st. Jan. 1838, at 4 years, due one-fourth, Jan. 1842.	103 23
	<hr/>	206 46
These notes appear to have been received, for settlement of a debt of $206 46, due by P. S. Kennard—according to his original note for that amount, on the 9th May, 1833. That note was not paid at maturity, and, together with other debts considered as desperate, was closed as such in 1834—see printed report for that year, page 26. (The amount there stated is $208 46—two dollars having been added to the amount of the note for costs incurred.)
2d.—In part, by the following old debts due from the Institution for balances on account of sales of negroes under former law:—
To Montgomery County	$49 26
“ Somerset “	27 00
“ Talbot “	69 75
“ P. George's “	3 00
	<hr/>	149 00
3rd.—And by the balance at the credit of “suspense account”—being for a sum of money clandestinely introduced into the Penitentiary in 1825, for the purpose of procuring the escape of a convict, James McCulloch—by bribery of one of the Deputy keepers,	600 00
Loss, expenses in suit brought by James McCulloch for recovery of the same, paid in September 1827,	43 33
		<hr/>
		$912 13

4th Inter.—Has the profit and loss account been properly made up for the last year?

Answer.—The introduction into the profit and loss account of last year, of the above named notes of P. S. Kennard, due
