

THE TREASURER'S RECEIPTS FOR THE,

IN THE YEARS,		Free School Fund.	Tobacco Warehouse Fund.	Funds for the Judges of Balt. county Court.	The Sinking Fund.
In the Year of	1826	93,419 49	7,904 48		2,651 80
"	1827	23,590 98	79,291 00		2,644 50
"	1828	21,036 21	20,050 22		5,768 50
"	1829	27,241 59	13,458 15	1,057 82	4,086 00
"	1830	19,636 38	21,728 48	1,506 24	4,245 00
"	1831	20,403 10	35,694 31	1,756 80	4,248 00
"	1832	21,139 11	19,539 38	2,038 23	4,248 00
"	1833	21,324 83	11,012 58	2,242 96	17,456 70
"	1834	21,231 66	256 62	3,078 30	3,515 50
"	1835	21,088 12	8,935 59	2,263 15	424,117 98
"	1836	24,464 93	7,154 13	2,040 86	314,869 67
"	1837	32,917 49	40,268 64	3,090 37	89,287 36
"	1838	70,948 37	5,368 98	9,205 62	116,457 29
		$418,442 29	276,662 56	21,280 35	993,896 30

Whereof, a commission of $\frac{1}{2}$ per centum, would be equivalent to \$450 a year, paid annually — being the very lowest amount of commission paid yearly to every officer in the State, who for the last 13 years, has received for the State only \$9000 a year.

$750 per annum, is the sum allowed by law, to each of the Clerks of the States', Tobacco Inspectors in Baltimore.