

It remains but to acknowledge our obligations to the gentlemen connected with us on these surveys and in more immediate charge of the instrumental investigations. The party which made the surveys of the Linganore and Seneca routes comprised the following gentlemen: Messrs. R. S. Smith, W. Crighton, R. D. Cutts, and A. Campbell. The party which made the surveys of the Brookville route, and country in connection with it, comprised the following gentlemen: Mr. Samuel Power, Thos. S. O'Sullivan, J. H. Adams, and W. H. McLeHose.

Which is respectfully submitted,

THOS. J. LEE,
JAMES P. KIRKWOOD.
