

en. Nominations are made, and the present incumbents were nominated, as follows, viz.

For President.

By the representative of the State of Maryland—George C. Washington.

For Directors.

By the representative of the State of Maryland—John Hoye.

By the representative of the Corporation of Georgetown—Walter Smith.

By the representative of the United States—John J. Abert.

By the representative of the Corporation of Alexandria—Phineas Janney.

By the representative of the State of Virginia—Richard H. Henderson.

By the representative of the Corporation of Washington—William Gunton.

The amount of stock in the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company held by the President and Directors, is as follows, viz.

George C. Washington, 21 shares—$2,100 paid; also $800 of deferred stock for his stock in the late Potomac Company.

John J. Abert, 5 shares—$500 paid.

William Gunton, 30 shares—$3,000 paid.

Richard H. Henderson, 10 shares—$1,000 paid.

John Hoye, 10 shares—$830 paid, and has claims for land damages.

Phineas Janney, 30 shares—$3,000 paid.

Walter Smith is of the firm of Walter and Clement Smith. They subscribed for 200 shares—$20,000, in the name of the firm—have paid $7,500 in cash, and have claims for land damages, which are now in a course of settlement.

Each share of stock is one hundred dollars.

JOHN P. INGLE.

Canal Office, Washington, Feb. 23, 1839.

Letter from Walter Smith to J. P. Ingle.

GEORGETOWN, Feb. 23, 1839.

JOHN P. INGLE, Esq.

Clerk Ch. & Ohio Canal Co., Washington.

Dear Sir,—I have received your letter of yesterday advising of an interrogatory which had been propounded to you by the Legislature of Maryland, the purport of which was to ascertain “the names of the President and Directors of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company? the number of shares held by them respectively in that company, and the amount paid thereupon?” and you further say, that you are about to make up and forward by mail, your answer thereto.

The books of the company show, that my brother, Clement Smith, and myself, are conjunctly, amongst the original subscri-