

the company on the one hand, or to those having open accounts with it on the other.

The former boards honored me with their confidence, I have enjoyed their good will and friendship and have received from them, all, and more than all that was a bargain between us. I have above stated every item of pecuniary consideration I have ever received from the company. I should have been gratified that the present board had, at the moment of parting with me at least have bade me farewell, with the added official expression of their estimate of my services.

My labors of nearly 16 years will be concluded, when it shall please this committee to permit me to return to my home.

ROBT. BARNARD.

Annapolis, Feb. 11th, 1841.

State of Maryland, Anne Arundel County, sct.

On this 13th day of February, 1841, before me the subscriber, one of the Justices of the Peace, in and for said County and State, personally appears Robt. Barnard, who being by me, duly sworn according to law, doth depose and say, that the matters and things stated by him in answers to the several interrogatories contained in the foregoing pages numbered from No. 1 to No. 23 inclusive, are true to the best of his knowledge and belief.

Sworn before,

J. W. HUNTER.
