

CANAL OFFICE, Frederick city,

March 1, 1841.

I certify the foregoing to be true extracts from the journal of proceedings of the President and Directors of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company, on the days of their respective dates.

THO. TURNER,

Cl. Ch. & O. C. Co.

CANAL OFFICE, Frederick,

March 1, 1841.

DEAR SIR:—

Your letter of 27th ult. was received by me this morning, and pursuant to your request, I transmit to you the foregoing extracts from the journal, &c.

You will perceive, that part of the proceedings are on days subsequent to the 14th of Nov. 1839, the day named in your letter, but as they were confirmatory of the order passed on the 9th Nov. 1839, it appeared proper and necessary that they also should be copied.

Your's respectfully,

THO. TURNER,

Cl. Ch. & O. C. Co.

EDWARD A. LYNCH, Esq.

Ch. Com. Int. Imp.

ANSWERS OF MR. FILLEBROWN.

[1ST SERIES.]

Interrogatories and Cross Interrogatories propounded to Thomas Fillebrown, Jr. late Assistant Clerk in the office of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company, and his answers thereto.

To the 1st Interrogatory, in these words—“What was the amount of debts of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company on the 1st day of June, 1839. What were the means possessed by the company at that time, either in cash, State bonds or
