

have demeaned themselves in a manner worthy of the high character of the State from which they emigrated and that they trust with unshaken confidence in the faith of the State to prosecute and consummate the scheme in which it has so nobly embarked.

With much respect,

I have the honor to be,

Your very obedient servant,

JAMES HALL,

Gen. Agt. Md. State Col. Society.

Colonization Rooms, Baltimore January, 8th 1844.
