

I have thus spread my answer over two pages, when it hardly required as many lines, because if any legislative action is had on such matters, I like to have it understood, that circumstances alter cases. .

Very respectfully and

Truly yours,

JAMES HALL.

P. S. I hope no change of policy will take place this season as I believe Virginia will be induced to join us ere another year, in a grand scheme of Chesapeake emigration, which will from causes above stated, materially lessen the expenses of emigration.
