

	Doc.	Pg.
CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO CANAL—
Of the law of Virginia, amending the charter of the company,	C.	28
Confirmed by Congress; but useless without a waiver of the liens of Maryland, which was eventually obtained,	“	29
The law of last session commented on,	“	30
The canal;—its extent; dimensions and cost;—capacity,	“	32
Sources of trade and revenue;—coal,	“	33
Relative heating powers of Cumberland and foreign coals,	“	35
The rate of toll on coal,	“	35
Income, and annual expenses,	“	36
Proceedings of the Company accepting the Laws of Maryland and Virginia,	“	37
Instrument of writing, transmitted to the Treasurer, signifying said acceptance,	“	39
Treasurer's acknowledgment of its receipt,	“	41
Certificate of approval of the instruments of guaranty, by the Governor and State's Agents,	“	41
Copy of advertisement for proposals to complete the canal,	“	43
Article from the Boston Daily Advertiser, relative to the Cumberland coal region, &c.	“	43
Communication from the State's Agents transmitting the records of proceedings of the Stockholders of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal company since their last report,	J.
Proceedings, for the acceptance of the act of Maryland, providing for the completion of the work to Cumberland,	“	1
Report of the committee of stockholders to whom was referred the 17th Annual report of the President of the,	“	5
Further additional report thereon,	“	9
Election of officers of the company,	“	10
Order concerning the letting of contracts to complete the canal,	“	11
Salary of the President of the, increased,	“	13
Communication of the President of the, relative to the removal of the office of the, from Frederick to Cumberland,	“	15
Resolution adopted, that the office be not removed,	“	16
Report of the President to the Stockholders,	“	18
See above,	“	28