

	Doc.	Pg.
EDUCATION—
Relations of intelligence and government,	N.	5
Educational system ought to be general and complete; and subject to the control of one common head; the Secretary of State not the proper officer therefor, and why; the President of St. John's College recommended as a suitable personage,	“	8
Proposed system would not prostrate the collegiate system but bring collegiate education within reach of the humblest,	“	9
The public mind should receive an American, and not a foreign and Roman or Latin direction,	“	9
Comparative advantages of the study of science and the dead languages,	“	10
Importance of a knowledge of the history of our own country, and of primary studies,	“	12
Disadvantages of sending children abroad to be educated; the advantage of uniting agriculture with our institutions,	“	13
Our intellectual servitude to the North; recommendations of the committee; the system in Massachusetts,	“	14
General condition of Education in Massachusetts; ditto in Maryland, as well as can be ascertained,	“	19
Report of the Treasurer of the amount appropriated to each county, for academies and colleges,	“	20
Schedule of salaries paid teachers, principals and assistants at the schools in Baltimore,	“	22
ELLETT, CHARLES JR. —Communication from, to the President of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal company in accordance with the request of the latter, on the relative costs of transporting coal, &c. on rail roads and canals in England,	J. A.	80
EXECUTIVE —Annual message of the, See Message .
Recommended that further powers be conferred upon the, to enforce the tax laws,	“	4
EXECUTORS —Operations of the law taxing the commissions of, and administrators; amendments recommended,	“	15
EXPENSES —The Contingent and Miscellaneous of the State. See those heads.		