

28th.

When a question has once been decided in the affirmative, or negative, a motion of reconsideration shall be in order, if made by one member, and seconded by two others who voted in the majority, within three days after the decision; and no motion for reconsideration shall be postponed or laid on the table.

29th.

Petitions, memorials and other papers addressed to the House, shall be presented by the speaker, or by a member in his place; and the object of all petitions and memorials shall be endorsed on the back, and shall be entered on the journal.

30th.

The unfinished business in which the House was engaged at the preceding adjournment, shall have the preference in the orders of the day; and no motion, or any other business shall be received without special leave of the House, until the former is disposed of.

31st.

Any fifteen members (including the Speaker, if there be one,) shall be authorised to compel the attendance of absent members.

32nd.

Every committee shall have leave to report by bill or otherwise.

33rd.

No committee shall sit during the sitting of the House, without special leave.

34th.

On an election to any office of trust or profit, no ballott shall be counted, unless the person for whom it be given be nominated to the House before the balloting be commenced, except as may be otherwise provided for by the Constitution.

35th.

When a blank is not filled up, and different sums, numbers, or times, shall be proposed, the question shall be taken on the largest sum, or number, and on the latest time.
