

The undersigned will therefore content himself with a mere expression of his opinion of the equity of the repeal of this most odious of all the laws now burdening the Statute Book of the State. For this purpose and for that of procuring a reduction of the direct tax, he respectfully submits the accompanying bills.

JOHN MORRIS.