

1798, chapter 87, and 1798, chapter 110, Samuel Owings, James Carroll, John Merryman, James Carey and Nicholas Rogers, the Commissioners appointed to build the said new Jail, were (1798, chapter 87, sections 4 and 5) authorised to sell and convey a portion of said Court House Lot, to wit :

So much thereof as lies on the west side of a line drawn parallel to and distant 153 feet west, from the west side of Calvert street. And in pursuance of the authority so vested in them, the said Commissioners sold, and by deed, dated the 1st day of May, 1802, recorded in Liber W. G., No. 73, folio 67, conveyed to William Lorman a part of said ground, commencing at the south east corner of St. Paul's lane (now St. Paul street,) and New Church, (now Lexington street,) and extending east 160 feet and south 96 feet, to an alley 15 feet wide, (now Court House lane,) another part to John McKim, by deed dated the 1st day of May, 1802, recorded in Liber W. G., No. 70, folio 626, &c., being a Lot 25 feet front on Lexington street, adjoining the east side of Lorman's Lot, and extending through to Court House lane, and another part to Ennion Williams, by deed, dated the 31st day of May, 1802, recorded in Liber W. G., No. 73, folio 214, &c., being a Lot 25 feet front on Lexington street, adjoining the east side of McKim's Lot, and extending back to Court House lane.

William Lorman having acquired the title to both the above mentioned lots, by deeds from John McKim and Ennion Williams, dated respectively the 8th and 10th of November 1804, and recorded in Liber W. G., No. 82, folio 591, &c., and 588, by deed dated the 11th day of August 1815, and recorded in Liber W. G., No. 131, folio 742, conveyed the whole property to wit ; 210 feet extending east from Saint Paul street, and through to Court House lane, to the Justices' of the Levy Court for Baltimore County, in trust for the use and behoof of Baltimore County, and for no other use, trust, intent or purpose whatsoever.

Second. The Jail and Prison Lot ; the title to this lot is held under an Inquisition and Condemnation in pursuance of the Act of Assembly of 1798, chapter 110, entitled a supplement to an Act for building a new Jail in Baltimore county ; which Inquisition bears date the 5th day of May, 1800, and with all the proceedings thereon was recorded on the 9th day of June, 1801, in Liber W. G., No. 67, folio 362, &c.

Also, by a deed from Catharine Griffith and others, to Samuel Owings and others, the Commissioners for erecting the new Jail, to hold for the use of Baltimore County, (see Act of 1798, chapter 87, section 2,) which deed is dated the 11th day of May, 1801, and is recorded in Liber W. G., No. 67, folio 369, &c.

Also, by a deed from William Wilson to the said Commissioners, for the use of Baltimore County, dated the 27th day of May, 1802, and recorded in Liber W. G., No. 73, folio 654, &c.
