

EXECUTIVE PROCEEDINGS

by the people of the second election district, and having failed to qualify within the time prescribed by law.

James M. Seth and Joseph B. Harrington, for justices of the peace for Talbot county, vice themselves severally elected thereto by the people of the fifth election district, and having failed to qualify within the time prescribed by law.

John C. Parker, judge of the orphans court of Calvert county, vice James A. Bond, resigned.

William Stevenson, auctioneer in Baltimore city, vice Robert Lemmon, resigned.

E. LOUIS LOWE.

Executive Department,
January 7th, 1854.

To the Senate:

Gentlemen—The following appointments were made during the recess of your honorable body, and I now nominate them respectively, for their respective offices:

June 10th, 1853. Thomas O. Sollers, esquire, director of the Maryland Penitentiary, vice F. Lucas, jr., esquire, deceased.

September 21st, “ John E. Blackistone, esquire, inspector, measurer, and marker of lumber in Baltimore city, vice S. Comegys, resigned.

December 8th, “ Samuel Chamberlaine, esquire, commissioner of public works, vice himself elected thereto by the people of the fourth district, and having failed to qualify within the time prescribed by law.

For Baltimore City.

December 10th, “ Robert A. McAllister, justice of the peace, vice himself elected thereto by the people of the third ward, and having failed himself to qualify within the time prescribed by law.

For Anne Arundel County.

August 25th, “ James W. Hunter, Notary Public, vice Richard I. Cowman, resigned.