

December 17th, 1853. Gassaway Winterson, justice of the peace, vice himself, elected thereto by the people of the first election district, and having failed to qualify within the time prescribed by law.

For Baltimore County.

December 17th, " Elisha Parks, justice of the peace, vice himself elected thereto by the people of the eighth election district, and having failed to qualify within the time prescribed by law.

For Dorchester County.

December 17th, " John W. Dean, justice of the peace, vice himself elected thereto by the people of the fourth election district, and having failed to qualify within the time prescribed by law.

For Talbot County.

October 12th, " Walter H. Thompson, Notary Public, vice H. L. Edmonson, resigned.

For Harford County.

December 17th, " Jones Davidson, justice of the peace, vice himself elected thereto by the people of the first election district, and having failed to qualify within the time prescribed by law.

For Allegany County.

October 7th, " Joseph M. Strong, coroner, vice Pierce Byrne, removed from the State.

For commissioners to take acknowledgment of deeds and instruments of writing under seal out of the State.

June 9th, " Joseph Grant, to reside at San Francisco, California.

June 13th, " George F. Angell, to reside at Boston, Massachusetts.