

1853. Dec. 17,	taking of testimony in Richmond Virginia, as to the person entitled to receive the reward offered for the apprehension of a certain Octavius McLyles, a Fugitive from justice, as per voucher filed,	56 71
22,	Wm. A. Irving, for the one half of a reward of two hundred dollars offered by the Governor (per Proclamation of December 8th, 1853,) for the arrest of Octavius McPherson Lyles, a Fugitive from justice, apprehended and brought from Virginia by a requisition, as per voucher filed,	100 00
24,	John H. Scrivener, for the one half of a reward of two hundred dollars offered by the Governor, (per Proclamation of December 8th, 1853) for the arrest of Octavius McP. Lyles, a Fugitive from justice, apprehended and brought from Virginia by requisition, as per voucher filed,	100 00
31,	James Button, assignee of E. Wells, Jr., for publishing in Port Tobacco Times, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed,	5 50
31,	James Revell, for expenses in going and returning from Baltimore on Executive business in November last, as per voucher filed, Thomas E. Martin, for printing Commissions for elective officers, and for engraving letter heads for Executive Department, as per voucher filed,	4 30 437 50
1854. Jan. 2,	Wm. H. Bowdle, for publishing in Cambridge Democrat, proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, and notice of application for the pardon of Shenton, as per voucher filed, Baylor, Ripley and Brush, for publishing in the American	8 00