1854. Jan. 2,

Times, Proclamation, &c., to December 9th, as per voucher filed, F. Lucas, Jr., for one Record book for Executive Department, for Wafers, for Seal of Secretary of State, and for Steel Pens, as per voucher filed. B. H. Richardson and Co., for two years subscription to Republican and Argus, ended January 1st 1854, as per voucher filed, John Long, for publishing in Williamsport Journal, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Charles H. Schnauffer, for publishing in the Wecker, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Sappington and Miller, for publishing in Frederick Herald, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, John Robinson, for publishing in Hagerstown Mail, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, James Hopkins, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription, ending January 1854,	_
December 9th, as per voucher filed, F. Lucas, Jr., for one Record book for Executive Department, for Wafers, for Seal of Secretary of State, and for Steel Pens, as per voucher filed. B. H. Richardson and Co., for two years subscription to Republican and Argus, ended January 1st 1854, as per voucher filed, John Long, for publishing in Williamsport Journal, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Charles H. Schnauffer, for publishing in the Wecker, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Sappington and Miller, for publishing in Frederick Herald, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, John Robinson, for publishing in Hagerstown Mail, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, John Robinson, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,		, December 9th, as per voucher filed, F. Lucas, Jr., for one Record book for Executive Department, for Wafers, for Seal of Secretary of State, and for Steel Pens, as per voucher filed. B. H. Richardson and Co., for two years subscription to Republican and Argus, ended January 1st 1854, as per voucher filed, John Long, for publishing in Williamsport Journal, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Charles H. Schnauffer, for publishing in the Wecker, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Sappington and Miller, for publishing in Frederick Herald, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, John Robinson, for publishing in Hagerstown Mail, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, John Robinson, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,		Times Dualamatica for filed, F. Lucas, Jr., for one Record book for Executive Department, for Wafers, for Seal of Secretary of State, and for Steel Pens, as per voucher filed. B. H. Richardson and Co., for two years subscription to Republican and Argus, ended January 1st 1854, as per voucher filed, John Long, for publishing in Williamsport Journal, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Charles H. Schnauffer, for publishing in the Wecker, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Sappington and Miller, for publishing in Frederick Herald, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, John Robinson, for publishing in Hagerstown Mail, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, John Robinson, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,		December 0th as mer servel
F. Lucas, Jr., for one Record book for Executive Department, for Wafers, for Seal of Secretary of State, and for Steel Pens, as per voucher filed. B. H. Richardson and Co., for two years subscription to Republican and Argus, ended January 1st 1854, as per voucher filed, John Long, for publishing in Williamsport Journal, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Charles H. Schnauffer, for publishing in the Wecker, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Sappington and Miller, for publishing in Frederick Herald, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, John Robinson, for publishing in Hagerstown Mail, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, James Hopkins, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,		becember 3th, as per vouche for Executive Department, for Wafers, for Seal of Secretary of State, and for Steel Pens, as per voucher filed. B. H. Richardson and Co., for two years subscription to Republican and Argus, ended January 1st 1854, as per voucher filed, John Long, for publishing in Williamsport Journal, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Charles H. Schnauffer, for publishing in the Wecker, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Sappington and Miller, for publishing in Frederick Herald, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, John Robinson, for publishing in Hagerstown Mail, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, James Hopkins, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,	, Wafers, for Seal of Secretary of State, and for Steel Pens, as per voucher filed. B. H. Richardson and Co., for two years subscription to Republican and Argus, ended January 1st 1854, as per voucher filed, John Long, for publishing in Williamsport Journal, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Charles H. Schnauffer, for publishing in the Wecker, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Sappington and Miller, for publishing in Frederick Herald, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, John Robinson, for publishing in Hagerstown Mail, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, James Hopkins, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,		r. Lucas, Jr., for one Record book
State, and for Steel Pens, as per voucher filed. B. H. Richardson and Co., for two years subscription to Republican and Argus, ended January 1st 1854, as per voucher filed, John Long, for publishing in Williamsport Journal, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Charles H. Schnauffer, for publishing in the Wecker, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Sappington and Miller, for publishing in Frederick Herald, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, John Robinson, for publishing in Hagerstown Mail, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, John Robinson, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,		for Executive Department, for voucher filed. B. H. Richardson and Co., for two years subscription to Republican and Argus, ended January 1st 1854, as per voucher filed, John Long, for publishing in Williamsport Journal, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Charles H. Schnauffer, for publishing in the Wecker, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Sappington and Miller, for publishing in Frederick Herald, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, John Robinson, for publishing in Hagerstown Mail, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, James Hopkins, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,		waters, for Seal of Secretary of	}
B. H. Richardson and Co., for two years subscription to Republican and Argus, ended January 1st 1854, as per voucher filed, John Long, for publishing in Williamsport Journal, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Charles H. Schnauffer, for publishing in the Wecker, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Sappington and Miller, for publishing in Frederick Herald, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, John Robinson, for publishing in Hagerstown Mail, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, James Hopkins, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,		State, and for Steel Pens, as per years subscription to Republican and Argus, ended January 1st 1854, as per voucher filed, John Long, for publishing in Williamsport Journal, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Charles H. Schnauffer, for publishing in the Wecker, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Sappington and Miller, for publishing in Frederick Herald, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, John Robinson, for publishing in Hagerstown Mail, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, James Hopkins, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,			35 12 and Argus, ended January 1st 1854, as per voucher filed, John Long, for publishing in Williamsport Journal, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Charles H. Schnauffer, for publishing in the Wecker, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Sappington and Miller, for publishing in Frederick Herald, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, John Robinson, for publishing in Hagerstown Mail, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, James Hopkins, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,		B. H. Richardson and Co., for two 1854, as per voucher filed, John Long, for publishing in Williamsport Journal, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Charles H. Schnauffer, for publishing in the Wecker, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Sappington and Miller, for publishing in Frederick Herald, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, John Robinson, for publishing in Hagerstown Mail, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, James Hopkins, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,	į	years subscription to Republican
John Long, for publishing in Williamsport Journal, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Charles H. Schnauffer, for publishing in the Wecker, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Sappington and Miller, for publishing in Frederick Herald, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, John Robinson, for publishing in Hagerstown Mail, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, James Hopkins, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,		and Argus, ended January 1st	1 1 liamsport Journal, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Charles H. Schnauffer, for publishing in the Wecker, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Sappington and Miller, for publishing in Frederick Herald, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, John Robinson, for publishing in Hagerstown Mail, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, James Hopkins, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,	Ì		8 00 of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Charles H. Schnauffer, for publishing in the Wecker, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Sappington and Miller, for publishing in Frederick Herald, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, John Robinson, for publishing in Hagerstown Mail, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, James Hopkins, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,	j per voucher filed, Charles H. Schnauffer, for publishing in the Wecker, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Sappington and Miller, for publishing in Frederick Herald, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, John Robinson, for publishing in Hagerstown Mail, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, James Hopkins, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,	-
Charles H. Schnausser, for publishing in the Wecker, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Sappington and Miller, for publishing in Frederick Herald, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, John Robinson, for publishing in Hagerstown Mail, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, James Hopkins, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,	-	of Thanksgiving for 1853, as lishing in the Wecker, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Sappington and Miller, for publishing in Frederick Herald, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, John Robinson, for publishing in Hagerstown Mail, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, James Hopkins, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,	1	per voucher filed,	4 00
lishing in the Wecker, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, Sappington and Miller, for publishing in Frederick Herald, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, John Robinson, for publishing in Hagerstown Mail, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, James Hopkins, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,	1	Charles H. Schnauffer, for pub-
sa per voucher filed, Sappington and Miller, for publishing in Frederick Herald, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, John Robinson, for publishing in Hagerstown Mail, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, James Hopkins, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,		lishing in the Wecker, Proclama.	! !
as per voucher filed, Sappington and Miller, for publishing in Frederick Herald, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, John Robinson, for publishing in Hagerstown Mail, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, James Hopkins, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,		tion of Thanksgiving for 1853,] Sappington and Miller, for publishing in Frederick Herald, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, John Robinson, for publishing in Hagerstown Mail, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, James Hopkins, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,		as per voucher filed, "	5 00
mation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, John Robinson, for publishing in Hagerstown Mail, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, James Hopkins, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,	}	Sappington and Miller, for publish-mation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, John Robinson, for publishing in Hagerstown Mail, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, James Hopkins, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,	1	ing in Frederick Herald, Procla-	1
John Robinson, for publishing in Hagerstown Mail, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, James Hopkins, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,	1	mation of Thanksgiving for 1853.
John Robinson, for publishing in Hagerstown Mail, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, James Hopkins, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,		as per voucher filed.	3 00
Hagerstown Mail, Proclamation of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, James Hopkins, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,		John Robinson, for publishing in of Thanksgiving for 1853, as per voucher filed, James Hopkins, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,		Hagerstown Mail, Proclamation
James Hopkins, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,	1	of Thanksgiving for 1853 as per James Hopkins, for expenses incurred, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,	-	voucher filed.	4.00
red, and services rendered in placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,	1.		4 00 placing a Cannon in the Hall of the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,		red. and services rendered in the State House, and for painting an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,	۱ an inscription explanatory of its history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,		the State House and for painting history as per voucher filed, John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per vou- cher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,		an inscription explanatory of its
John Smith, for services rendered in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,	ĺ	history as per voucher filed	96 00 in Executive Department, for the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,		John Smith for services rendered	20 90 the quarter ended January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,	Ι.	in Executive Densitment for instant, as per voucher filed, John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,		the quarter ended Innuary las	•
John Smith, for keeping public Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,	١	instant as per voucher fled	26 00
Temple for the half year ending January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,		John Smith for kasping public	30 00
January 1st instant, as per voucher filed, John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,		Temple for the half weer and in-
John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,		Tanuary let instant as manuary	_
John W. Baughman, for publishing in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,		cher fled	1
in Frederick Citizen, notices of application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,			19 00 application and proclamatians, and for three years subscription,	-	in Frederick Citizen	1 and for three years subscription,		annication and annication annica application and proclamatians, ending January 1854, 20 00		and for three years subscription,	30.00
	i	enumg January 1854,	20 00