

five cents for lodging each juror and bailiff. The Clerk will examine all accounts, (requiring items to be specified,) and adjust them according to the above rates before returning the same to the City Register until further directed.

HY. STUMP, Judge.

True copy,
Test.

THOS. H. MOORE, Clerk.

[Underscored by Committee.]

The allowance fixed by this order of the court is $3.25 per day for board and refreshments, and is a charge upon the Treasury extra of the per diem allowed by law.

The office of the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas while under the management of L. S. Norwood, presents a spectacle of much confusion, and of criminal turpitude greatly to be regretted.

The following statement is an exhibit of the amounts received in this office from the sources therein mentioned.

STATE.

For Ordinaries issued from 1st June, to 1st Dec. 1853,	$1,322 80
“ “ Rent over $500 per annum,	20 79
“ Stock Brokers Licenses,	445 50
“ Exchange,	594 00
“ Bill,	297 00
“ Wood Hucksters,	115 00
“ Non Residents,	5,346 00
“ Billiard Tables,	114 01
“ Pedlars,	1,059 30
“ Traders Stock exceeding $20,000,	122 23
“ “ not “ “	75 22
“ “ “ “ $10,000,	143 45
“ “ “ “ $2,000,	207 25
“ “ “ “ $1,000,	1,807 53
“ “ “ “ $500, Female.	456 93
“ 898 Marriage Licenses,	3,556 08
	<hr/>
	$15,683 09