

a New Will

To the fourth fifth and other four following Interrogatories he saith that he knows nothing more of the Matter but that he has heard John Gibb deceased say that he brought Janet Celand the Libellant into Maryland & heard him often call her Cousin

Robert <sup>his</sup> Fortune

The Deposition of John Hawkins Hamilton of Queen Anns County Planter aged fifty two years or thereby who being sworn and interrogated upon the aforesd. Interrogatories as to the first Interrogatory saith that he has known Janet Celand about two years and the Respondents about thirty years.

To the second Interrogatory saith he knew John Gibb deceased about thirty years but cannot be positive when he died

To the third Interrogatory he says he knows nothing about it.

To the fourth Interrogatory saith that some short time before the death of John Gibb he went to see him along with the afo. John Bain when they found him in bed very ill of which sickness he says he afterwards died & upon their first going up to the said John Gibb he says he thought him pretty fool but very weak but of a sudden he says he seemed like a distracted Person and got out of Bed and continued in the same manner during their stay

To the fifth Interrogatory saith that when he visited John Gibb as above he does not think he was in his senses & as to the other Interrogatories says he knows nothing more of the Matter than what he has before deposed

J. H. Hamilton