some Provision for the Libellant Janet Celand and further hath that sometime after he made another Will at the desire of John Gibb deceased wherein he left Janet Celand one or two thousand pounds of Tobacco yearly but did not see John Gibb sign it and in the 1st Month of August being called by John Gibb when in his death bed desired to make another Will when in conversing with him the Deponent told him that he thought as he had taken Janet Celand out of her own Country he ought to provide for her to which John Gibb made no answer that he spoke Reasonably and the Deponent concluded he intended to do so but did not tell him in what manner so that in writing the Will the Deponent left a blank for what he intended to give Janet Celand but next day when the Will was shewn he appeared very much disorderd as if he had been distracted that the Deponent left him without seeing the Will signed

As to the fourth and fifth Interrogatories he saith that by his Behaviour as before he lookt more like a Madman then a Person in his proper senses (cursing and swearing and as to the sixth and other following Interrogatories saith that he knows no more of the matter then what is above
