

Interrogate upon the Interrogatories aforesaid as follows that he has known the Parties Defendant and Respondents for some years and John Gibb for at least Ten years before his death but knows nothing of his signing sealing and delivering any Will and he saith that he does not think that John Gibb in his most perfect health was either perfect or sound of mind having with several other company seen & been diverted with his Extravagant Whims and Follies in particular he used to Boast of his great judgment learning & understanding the at same time the Deponent thinks he was quite void of all of them and further saith that he used to boast of his Bodily perfections such as strength comeliness &c. and of the great Power he had in charming the Women by Virtue of these, and saith that it would be endless to give all the Instances of his several follies he also saith that his Memory was good but that he does not well understand what is meant by disposing, only says he would not have trusted him to have disposed of anything of his above a Trifle and likewise saith that having been with John Gibb sometime before his death & making his last Will (at least what is called his last Will) and the Reverend Mr. Richard Harrison in Company he thinks he was then worse with regard to his senses than he had known him before he Mr. Harrison then complained of some unbecoming speeches of one of his Negroes but she coming in and denying them John Gibb fell in a great Rage and fury threatening to