

Note of Credit he gave her to Mr. William Larnuchall for this Deponent thinks, one thousand pounds of Tobacco

To the Seventh Interrogatory this Deponent saith no

To the Eighth Interrogatory this Deponent saith he is not

To the Ninth Interrogatory this Deponent saith he hath often heard the said John Gibb boast of his great Learning his Bodily strength and the beauty of his Person and that Women fall in Love with him that he is often to represent himself in that manner during this Deponents acquaintance with him which began not long after the Death of the said Gibbs Wife that he was at the time of such Boasting (which indeed this Deponent as well as others often put him upon for their Deversion) in the Judgment of this Deponent in his Senses and capable of making a Will, of buying what he wanted or selling what he had to spare without being cheated or imposed upon for that when the Boasting fit was over he would talk Rationally enough about his Affairs.

To the Tenth Interrogatory this Deponent saith that he hath never seen the said John Gibb fall into violent Fitts of cursing damning and swearing

To the Eleventh Interrogatory this Deponent saith that the said John Gibb seemed to him to have a Tender Regard for his Negroes and was particularly fond of the Little ones, and farther saith not.
