

Differ which occasioned her to leave him that he understood the Libellant had the Management of the said John Gibb's Family and believed she thereby contributed to the Increase of his Estate but does not know what Influence she was to him.

To the Seventh Interrogatory this Deponent saith that he at the Request of the said John Gibb wrote a Will for him some few days before his Death but cannot remember how many days whereof he gave the Libellant six Negroes to a Son of David Thompson a horse a gun and all his Plate and the Residue of his Estate to his Brothers Sons in Scotland that no Persons was Present but the said John Gibb at the Time he wrote the said Will that the Libellant never offered this Deponent anything to write the said Will so as to be of no Validity or Effect that the said John Gibb said to this Deponent at the time of Writing the said Will that his Reasons for altering his former Will was that he had not done Justice to his Relations in leaving his Negroes free and in Particular to the Libellant for that she had given something to his Brother in Scotland at his Request which he had promised to make her Satisfaction for and had not done it in his former Will.

To the Eighth Interrogatory this Deponent saith no.

To the Ninth Interrogatory this Deponent saith that he has frequently that he has heard the said John Gibb boast of his great Learning Bodily Strength Beauty of his Person and of Womens
