

frequently falling in love with him that the said John Gibb expressed himself in such a manner soon after his Wifes death and continued to do so till within four or five Months of the time he died that the said John Gibb at the time of such Boasting in this Deponents Judgment was not Capable of making all Will buying what he wanted or selling what he had to spare and for cause saith that the said John Gibb would at some times ask an Extravagant Price for his Corn and Tobacco and thereby Miss his Market in selling it

To the tenth Interrogatory this Deponent saith that he has seen the said John Gibb in violent fits of cursing Damning & Swearing several Times but does not remember when or how often & in his opinion such Extravagant Behaviour Proceeded from Passion

To the Eleventh Interrogatory this Deponent saith that he knows nothing more than what he has before declared
