

To the seventh Interrogatory saith no.

To the eighth Interrogatory saith no.

To the ninth Interrogatory saith that after the execution of the said John Gibbs Will and sometime before the said John Gibbs death he asked the Libellant whether she had any Living in Scotland which her Uncle had caused her to dispose of before she came to Maryland to which the Libellant answered that there was a small Matter due to her from a Grandfather or Grandmother's Estate but that there was a Law Suit to go through before it could be Recovered and that she had put it into her Uncle Williams hands to get & wanted him to give from under his hand that he would let her have if she should Return to Scotland again which he Refused to do and at the same time the Libellant said it was in this Deponents Fathers Power to do her a favour if he would which was to keep back the Will that was against her & Produce one that was in her favour This Deponent further saith that after the last Will of the said John Gibbs was wrote James Mafsey Sen. one of these Respondents asked the said John Gibbs whether he would sign the Will that night or let it alone till Morning to which the said John Gibbs answered to Night to Night by all means it may be late in the Morning at which time the said John Gibbs called his Negro Woman Hannah to get the Sealing Wax and Light a Candle and as the said John Gibbs was holding the Wax to the Candle his hand shook and the said James Mafsey Sen. asked the said John Gibbs whether he should Melt the Wax to which the