

To the sixth Interrogatory saith that the Libellant Lived several times in the house and family of the said John Gibb but never long at a Time that she often left him and went to live at Philadelphia which the said John Gibb charged to her ill Temper and said it was Impossible for any man to live with her that she does not know that the Libellant did increase the said John Gibbs Estate but has heard him say that he had sent her several hogsheads of Tobacco to Philadelphia

To the seventh Interrogatory saith no

To the eighth Interrogatory saith no

To the Ninth Interrogatory saith that she has often heard the said John Gibb boast of his Learning Bodily Strength and Beauty of his Person and that Women frequently fell in love with him and at the Times of such Boasting the said John Gibb was in this Deponents Judgment in his Senses Capable of making a Will beying what he wanted or selling what he had to spare without being cheated or Imposed upon

To the tenth Interrogatory saith no

To the eleventh Interrogatory saith that about Eighteen Months before the said John Gibbs death the said John Gibb read a Will to this Deponent in the presence of the Libellant where by he had given the Libellant two thousand pounds of Tobacco at which the Libellant was very much displeased doubled her fist Put it to the said John Gibbs Nose and saying that she did not thank him for the Tobacco and he might stop it in his Backside his Sworn to this 19th day of march Susannah Bassett 1750 before me Rich^d Dorsey Reg^r mark