

At which said next Court / Court / the second Tuesday of May being the fourteenth day of the same Month Anno Domini 1751 came again the said Parties Libellant and Respondents by their Procurators &c. and it is ruled that there be a hearing in this cause - the next Court or sooner if applied for but there being no application for a hearing in the said cause the same is continued untill next Court and the same day is given to the Libellant and Respondents also.

At which said next Court / Court / the second Tuesday of July being the Ninth day of the same Month Anno Domini 1751. came again the said Parties Libellant and Respondents by their Procurators &c. and his honour the Judge having taken time to consider of his Decree in this cause doth on the third day of August Anno Domini 1751 make his Order Sentence and Decree in manner and form following

In the Name of God Amen Daniel Dulany Esq. Comptroller General and Judge for Probate of Wills and granting Administrations within the Province of Maryland lawfully Qualified & Appointed Rightly and duly Proceeding having seen the Examinations of the Witnesses and heard what has been said and alleged by the Procurators on both Sides and Maturely deliberated & Considered the same And notwithstanding the Positive Proof made by the Witnesses to the Will or pretended Will in dispute Yet as well by the Testimony of several Witnesses of the Condition John Gibb was in all the Month of August of the year he died, sometime