

might be reheard when All the Commissioners might be present, which Motion the Appellees by her Proctor opposed And the said Court after having heard what could be said by the Proctors on both sides for and against the said Motion for a further Adjournment was pleased to reject the said Motion