

Mr. John Gibbs Estate and that John Sprays answer was what have I done upon which she told him he had sworn John Gibb was in his proper senses Whereupon he said he was asked no such Question but only if he was in his senses and that he was certain he was not in her senses nor his so must have been in his own Whether Fool or Madman and that he knew People would talk and that they might talk for they had room for it but we have done it (meaning himself and other Witnesses) and that they who were affronted might take their Recompence

her
Mary M. Macintosh
mark.

The Deposition of John Bain of Cecil County Merchant aged Twenty eight years or there by who being sworn and Interrogated upon the afo. Interrogatory as to the first saith that he hath know the Parties Libellant and Respondents for about Seven years

As to the second Interrogatory ^{saith} he knew the afo. John Gibb died about Six years

As to the Third Interrogatory he says he knows nothing of it

As to the fourth Interrogatory and also the fifth saith that some short Time before the Death of the afo. John Gibb he went to demand payment of a Debt from him but finding him as he imagines distracted and as bad as any Person in Bedlam could be made no Demand of his Money from which and hearing him complain of the Justice of Almighty God he says he concluded the afo. John Gibb died was not then in his senses and that he said he would leave his Estate to his Relations if he thought he could see them blazing in hell

To the Sixth Seventh and Eighth Interrogatories he saith that he has heard the said John Gibb ^{die} say that he brought Janet Cleland into Maryland because he thought he could do better for her than she could be done for at home and further saith he has several times seen her employed about John Gibbs house and that John Gibb told him that after she was gone from him he sent her some Tobacco yearly to Philadelphia

And as to the Ninth Interrogatory saith that he knows nothing more of the matter than what he has above Deposited

John Bain