

To the Sixth and other three following Interrogatories he saith that he has heard John Gibb say he brought her the Libellant his Niece from her own Country and made her dispose of her own Effects there in purpose to make her his heir in this Country & says he knows nothing more of the matter
J. A. Wooddell

The Deposition of John Holt of Queen Anns Court Planter aged fifty years or thereabouts who being sworn and Interrogated upon the aforesaid Interrogatories saith as follows as to the first that he has known Janet Cleland the Libellant for twelve years and the Respondents for sixteen years

As to the second Interrogatory he saith that he served John Gibb sixteen years ago and knew him ever after till his Death which was in the fall of the year of our Lord seventeen hundred & forty seven

To the third Interrogatory he saith that about three months before the Death of John Gibb he wrote his Will for him which he see'd him sign seal and Deliver to James Mafsey one of the Respondents but does not particularly Remember the Contents only that there was some Provision for the Libellant Janet Cleland and further saith that some time after he made another Will at the desire of John Gibb de'd wherein he left Janet Cleland one or two thousand Pounds of Tobacco yearly but did not see John Gibb sign it and in the aforesaid Month of August being called by John Gibb when in his Death Bed sicknes to make another Will when in conversing with him the Deponent told him that he thought as he had taken Janet Cleland out of her own Country he ought to Provide for her to which John Gibb made no answer that he spoke reasonably and the Deponent concluded he intended to do so but did not tell him in what manner so that in writing the Will the Deponent left a Blank for what he intended to give Janet Cleland but next day when the Will was shewn he appeared very much disordered as if he had been distracted that the Deponent left him without seeing the Will signed

As to the fourth and fifth Interrogatories he saith that by his Behaviour as before he lookt more like a Madman than a Person