

To the Sixth Interrogatory this Deponent saith he knows nothing

To the Seventh & Eighth Interrogatories this Deponent answereth no

To the Ninth Interrogatory this Deponent saith that the said John Gibb was much accustomed (to boast of his great Learning and of his Bodily Strength and of the Beauty of his Person and that Women frequently fell in love with him during all the time he knew him) but that he does not know the time of the Death of the said John Gibb's Wife this Deponent further saith that the said John Gibb was at the time of such vain Boasting to the best of his Judgment and apprehension in his Senses and Capable of making a Will or of bargaining about his private Affairs for that the said John Gibb when diverted from that vain humour would talk soberly and Rationally of his own Affairs or of any indifferent matter and for that the Will abovementioned appeared to him this Deponent to be a Reasonable and Just Will

To the Tenth Interrogatory this Deponent saith that he never saw the said John Gibb fall into any violent fits of cursing, Damning and Swearing Lastly this Deponent saith that the said John Gibb always appeared to him to have a tender Regard for his Negroes and particular for the little Children of whom he was extremely fond & further saith not
