

that if he did not alter his condition but lived Single. in the State he then as he would at his Death let all his Negroes free and give them his Estate and if they had not sense enough to keep it they must suffer

To the Sixth Interrogatory saith that the Libellant did live ~~with~~ in the house and family of the said John Gibb that she left his family a great many years before his Death but upon what occasion does not know that she returned to the said John Gibb's house some time in the summer before the said John Gibb died that he has heard the said John Gibb say to the Libellant when she offered to assist him (in his sickness) that she should not touch him and that he did not want her to do anything for him, that at the first time of her living with ~~this~~ said John Gibb he has seen her knitting but does not know whether she ~~contributed~~ to the Increase of his Estate or was an Expence to him

To the Seventh Interrogatory saith No

To the Eighth Interrogatory saith No.

To the Ninth Interrogatory saith that he has often heard the said John Gibb boast of his great Learning bodily Strength Beauty of his Person and that Women fell in Love with him and at the time of such Boasting he was in this Deponents Opinion in his senses and Capable of making a will Buying what he wanted or selling what he had to spare without being Cheated or Imposed upon

To the Tenth Interrogatory saith No.

To the Eleventh Interrogatory saith that after the Execution of the said John Gibb's Will and sometime before the said John Gibb's Death he asked the Libellant whether she had any living in Scotland which her Uncle had caused her to dispose of before she came to Maryland to which the Libellant answered that there was a small matter due to her from a Grandfather or Grandmother's Estate but that there was a Law suit to go through before it could be recovered and that she had put it into her Uncle Williams hands to get and wanted him to give from under his hand that he