

To the Seventh Interrogatory saith No

To the Eighth Interrogatory saith No

To the Ninth Interrogatory saith that she has often heard the said John Gibb boast of his Learning Bodily strength and Beauty of his Person and that Women frequently fell in Love with him and at the times of such Boasting the said John Gibb was in this Deponents Judgment in his Wares Capable of making a Will buying what he wanted or selling what he had to spare without being Cheated or Imposed upon

To the Tenth Interrogatory saith No

To the Eleventh Interrogatory saith that about Eighteen Months before the said John Gibbs Death the said John Gibb read a Will to this Deponent in the presence of the Libellant where by he had given the Libellant two Thousand pounds of Tobacco at which the Libellant was very much displeas'd doubled her fist put it to the said John Gibbs Nose and saying that she did not thank him for the Tobacco and he might stop it in his Back Side sworn to this 19th day of March 1750 before me Rich^d. Dorsey Reg^r

Susanna ^{her} Bassett mark

The following Examinations were taken on Interrogatories filed by the Libellant at the Instance of the Libellants Procurator

Maryland s^t: Depositions of Witnesses taken on Interrogatories filed by James Oceland Libellant against James Maffey Sen^r and John Hadley Sen^r Ex^{ts} of John Gibb Respondents

The Deposition of William Elghman of Queen Anns County aged thirty nine years who being sworn on the holy Evangelis of Almighty God To the first Interrogatory doth depose and say that he knows the Parties Libellant and Respondents that he hath known the Libellant about four years as the Respondent James Maffey Sen^r about Ten or Eleven years and the