

And whereas, I am satisfied that, it would be for your my Advantage, that if the Stewards were required to make up an their annual Accounts regularly, on some particular day, to be fixed.
It is my Will that you insist upon their doing so, allowing them a reasonable time to collect the Rents due from the Tenants, and to make up their respective Accounts, and in case any of the present Stewards shall, after they are acquainted with this our Requisition, neglect or delay to comply therewith, It is my Desire, that such Stewards be superseded, and other more punctual Men be appointed in their Stead.

For the better Guidance and Direction of the said Stewards, you are to give them such Instructions in Writing as you may judge necessary (to be approved of by our Lieutenant Governor) and to take Bonds from them with good Security, conditioned, for the faithful Discharge of their Office, and punctual payment of such Rents as they shall respectively receive from our Tenants, which said Instructions you are to enter in a Book to be kept in the Receiver Generals Office, & when you and our Lieutenant Governor have appointed particular Days for signing Leases, you are to insist upon the Stewards presenting them on those Days to be signed.

You are to cause Notice to be given in each County, by Advertisements, of the Conditions upon which our Manor or Residue Lands in such County are granted, and what Fees are to be paid by Tenants Surveying &c. so that they may not be liable to be imposed on by the Stewards, or deterred from applying for Leases by an apprehension that they cannot be easily obtained.

And whereas it will be a great Ease and Advantage to have my Accounts settled and Closed every year, and I am it will be likewise for your Ease, and I am afraid that were us to Die a great deal of trouble, and confusion, would
